- Decisions of the Comanche Nation Fair Board Committee are final. No exceptions.

30th Annual Comanche Nation Fair Sept. 29th, Sept. 30th, & Oct. 1st, 2023

*Inclement Weather Information:

- This is a rain, wind, or shine event! So in the event of inclement weather of any kind, the Comanche Nation Fair will be moved to a new location (*TBD) to continue the Pow Wow.
- The Event Coordinators will meet with Comanche Nation Fair Board Committee, Emergency Management, Injury Prevention, CHR EMS, Public Information Office, and Law Enforcement immediately and discuss plans of action to ensure a smooth transition.
- Once informed about vital information, the Event Coordinators will communicate with all vendors via cell phone or text message and inform them of the current situation and what to do.
- When transitioning from Pow Wow grounds to a new location, it will be treated as a FIRST COME, FIRST SERVE BASIS.
- Depending on the location, there will be limited number of spaces and room available.
- Depending on the location, electrical capacity may be limited and compliance should be followed.
- Depending on the location, Arts & Crafts, Food Vendor, and Non-Profit Rules & Regulations will still be followed and in effect.
- Depending on the location, all vendors are not guaranteed a designated spot. Size and dimensions will still apply to new location, NO EXCEPTIONS. If needed, accommodations will be made to ensure that all vendors will have equal room and be comfortably setup.
- Depending on the location, all A&C's Vendors may have to disassemble their setup each day due to protection of their property and start setup again for each day.
- Depending on the location, all Food Vendors may or may not be allowed to setup due to regulations or restrictions set by the business property or venue that will be chosen.
- Depending on the location, the Comanche Nation Tribe, Comanche Nation Fair Board Committee, nor Comanche Nation employees, associates, or volunteers are responsible for the distribution or transportation of vendor equipment, vendor water supply, vendor electricity outlets, vendor furnishings, or anything else associated with such vendors.
- Decisions of the Comanche Nation Fair Board Committee (CNFBC) are final. No exceptions.
